

WRONG SIDE OF THE ROAD

ANJALTS

We are still here
Picking up the pieces
I Always wondered if you care
I've always wondered why you fear

Still, we are here
Trying to keep the fire home
I didn't know you felt alone
I didn't know you felt Alone

Where are you running Running
Where is your home
Your home
Where are you running
Where are running Down the wrong side of the road

(Ah-ah-ah-ah)
(Ah-ah-ah-ah)

And the winds came Sweeps across the window frame
Trying not to be lost in pain
I didn't know you'd run out in the rain

Where are you running
Running
Where is your home
Your home
Where are you running
Where are you running Down the wrong side of the road

Where are you running
Running
Where is your home
Your home
Where are you running
Where are you running
Down the wrong side of
